

A Day in Ann Arbor

Joining us for our 2019 Youth Concerts? Make a day of it! Come see all that the Ann Arbor Area has to offer! Below you will find local Washtenaw County attractions (most within 2 miles) that you could visit before or after your time with us! We recommend calling ahead to schedule your group!

Ann Arbor Hands-On Museum

200 E. Ann St., Ann Arbor, MI 48104

www.aahom.org | (734) 995-5439

0.5 miles | 5 min. drive | 12 min. walk

$12.50/adults and children or $8/child for groups of 15 or more, pre-registered

Nine unique galleries containing more than 250 interactive exhibits; hands-on fun for all ages.

University of Michigan Kelsey Museum of Archaeology

434 S. State St., Ann Arbor, MI

<https://lsa.umich.edu/kelsey> | (734) 764-9304

0.2 miles | 2 min. drive | 4 min. walk

Free admission; tours available

Collection of nearly 100,000 ancient and medieval objects from civilizations of the Mediterranean and Near East.

University of Michigan Museum of Art

525 S. State St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109

www.umma.umich.edu | (734) 764-0395

0.3 miles | 3 min. drive | 5 min. walk

Free admission; $10 suggested donation; tours available upon prior request

Gallery highlighting over 18,000 artworks.

STEARNS COLLECTION OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

University of Michigan Stearns Collection of Musical Instruments

1100 Baitts Dr., Ann Arbor, MI 48109

<https://arts.umich.edu/cultural-collections/stearns-collection-of-musical-instruments/> | (734) 936-2891

2.2 miles | 10 min. drive

Free Admission; group tours available upon prior request

With over 2,500 historical and contemporary musical instruments from all over the world, it is one of the largest collections of such artifacts housed in a North American university.

A Day in Ann Arbor

University of Michigan Museum of Natural History and Planetarium

Biological Sciences Building: 1105 N. University Ave., Ann Arbor, MI 48109

www.lsa.umich.edu/ummnh | (734) 764-0478

0.7 miles | 4 min. drive | 5 min. walk

Reopening Spring 2019 | contact for group tours

Features exhibits on dinosaurs and prehistoric life, Michigan wildlife, anthropology, and geology. The museum offers a planetarium with a 360-degree domed screen, a butterfly garden, over 55 herbaceous perennials, and many hands-on exhibits.

Yankee Air Museum

47884 D St., Belleville, MI 48111

www.yankeeairmuseum.org | (734) 483-4030

17 miles | 26 min. drive

FREE for Youth Concert attendees | Contact for group tours

The museum's collections and exhibits building covers 47,000 square feet of floor space and houses permanent and rotating aviation and historical displays, restorations projects, a retail store, and a movie theater available to the public. Tours can also include flight labs, science labs, a flight simulator, and aviation movies.

Leslie Science and Nature Center

1831 Traver Rd., Ann Arbor, MI 48105

www.lesliesnc.org | (734) 997-1553

2.1 miles | 8 min. drive

$6-$7/student | maximum 75 students | contact for group tours/field trip information

Natural space with trails, nature house, raptor enclosures, a critter house, and programs for all ages.

The Petting Farm

at Domino's Farms

Domino's Petting Farm

3001 Earhart Rd., Ann Arbor, MI 48106

www.pettingfarm.com | (734) 998-0182

5.7 miles | 15 min. drive

Discount for A²SO Youth Concert attendees. Mention you're attending to receive $3 General admission for groups.

Combines education and fun to give a hands-on experience where people of all ages can learn about a real farm and interact with the animals.

A Day in Ann Arbor

Matthaei Botanical Gardens

1610 Washington Heights, Ann Arbor, MI 48104

<https://mbgna.umich.edu> | (734) 647-8986

1 mile | 8 min. drive

Free admission

Guided and self-guided tours available of the conservatory and trails at Matthaei Botanical Gardens and Nichols Arboretum. Trained interpretive guides cover a variety of topics including basic botany, adaptations, and ecosystems.

Michigan Firehouse Museum and Education Center

110 W. Cross St., Ypsilanti, MI 48197

www.michiganfirehousemuseum.org | (734) 547-0663

11 miles | 22 min. drive

$5 adults / children 5-12 $3 | Call for group rates and tours

Encompassing over 26,000 sq. ft., the museum is an educational treasure that includes an original 1898 firehouse and modern, multilevel exhibit display area of 25 rotating exhibits of antique fire trucks and equipment.